

RILEY B KING

Lyrics by Robben Ford

1ST VS.

He's a King
Without a castle or crown
And every night he lays his body down
In a different town
But one thing stays the same
Everybody knows his name

People will laugh or cry
As his stories are told
To tell the truth like this a man must be bold
And the people are glad
For the things he shares
Everybody knows he cares

CHORUS

By the light of the moon, over the ocean
Riley B King, he's a king of emotion
He's royal blue just like the deep blue sea
Riley B King

2ND VS.

Out of the darkness
And into the light
To fight the peaceful warrior's fight
Such a beautiful sight
And the way you feel
Watching him with Lucille

The heart of the man
Is open wide
And he closes his eyes and he looks inside
To a live of the world
And a song he might sing
A little something from BB King
